

Hammock can be used on both sides -
with or without the net

Jungle Tent Pro is sold separately

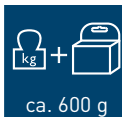

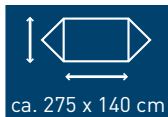

The impregnated hammock with mosquito net.

Moskito-Traveller EXTREME is permanently impregnated against insects such as mosquitoes, midges, ticks, ants etc. Despite this the impregnation of the material and net is completely safe for humans. It is also kind to the skin, odourless, heat-resistant and washable (up to max. fifty washes).

You get in from the side by opening a zip. Generous interior thanks to the patented spreader bars (included).

Small pack size. Can be used from both sides: with or without the net
